

I created in the picture above web website which name sportstugan

I included here a customer document library and event document library hand training equipment library

In the event document library and customer document library and training equipment library I included at least three columns for randomly information because I didn't manage to upload that specific document for each column but I tried to add just a column in order to show that I can do that

Sportstugan Home Documents Pages Customer Documents. Event Documents Training Equipment ... Edit ★ Following Site access
